Customer Reviews

I am writing a novel that takes place partly in Martinique. I have used this travel guide for background. Only a trip to the island could possibly have provided more useful information. So it is.

This is the guide that contains everything one needs for a vacation in Martinique. It gives details on activities ranging from free rum tastings to the volcano museum to Napoleon's Josephine to Gauguin, the painter. The guide is honest when rating attractions; only the most interesting are given three stars. I have looked at every guide to Martinique I could find, and this is the only one I would buy.
