Customer Reviews

Though it has taken me over a year to read J.C. Ryle's Expository Thoughts on the Gospel, it has been quite a wonderful treat! To be fair, I'd tackle one gospel--absolutely love it--and then take a few months off before going on to the next gospel. I loved covering each gospel chapter by chapter. I loved how Ryle made a point to bring out the relevance of each chapter. I loved how each chapter was sub-divided as well. It made it easier for read. The book included that portion of Scripture, and then discussion of those verses. I thought it was well-written and still relevant. Ryle is a very passionate, very zealous author. Or was, I should probably say.

It's a classic. It's a kindle It's 8 volumes in 1 volume It's thought provoking It's inspirational It's very reasonably priced

While I don't agree with everything that Ryle says, I love him as a great writer on biblical themes. His Expository Thoughts are a wonderful blend of solid exegesis plus heart-warming devotion. I always grow spiritually when I read Ryle.

Love this book.

Love it. Am using for my daily devotions.

Has greatly improved my understanding of the Gospels

Great look into the gospel of Jesus Christ. Ryle is a great writer! Strongly recommended for believers and unbelievers as well.

The best
