Book by Dr. Douglas J. Taber

Well written book that serves as a great information resource tool which helps you to learn about the causes & treatment options for back pain. The author uses easy to understand terms while thoroughly explaining back pain. Very well documented research supports given information. Explains the field of chiropractic, the process of healing, and common misconceptions regarding chiropractors. The book also shows the benefits of chiropractors and medical doctors working together to give the patient the best option. Great book!
