Customer Reviews

"I have lived in San Francisco, Chicago, and, very briefly, in New York City. I always return to the Twin Cities because I have deep roots, dozens of friends, fifty restaurants I love, an honest auto mechanic, a great woman gynecologist, and am in walking distance of four lakes. These are the things that make life worth living." -- Susan Vass, comedienne/author
"Stands skyscrapers above other state souvenirs and coffee table books." -- Rochester Post-Bulletin
From the book: "Several years ago, some promoter thought it would be clever to compare the Twin Cities to New York by calling it the Minneapple. It never caught on. Twin Citians don't think of themselves as fruits. We are a people of mashed potatoes, pork chops and green beans. Fruits we are not." -- Brian Anderson, editor of Mpls./St. Paul Magazine
