A Summer Homecoming: An Inspirational Romance

Synopsis

Melanie Richards last saw Zach Kellar when he left town without a word five years ago. With no explanation to comfort her, she lost her best friend and fiancé. She had moved on with life, or so she had thought until Zach came home. Zach returned to Hope Springs after a long absence, determined to make it his home again. He's not the same man that left—the demons of his past are settled. He came back wiser and full of faith, but would that make a difference to Melanie? A Summer Homecoming is a standalone, inspirational romance novella from USA Today Bestselling Author Leah Atwood.

Customer Reviews

As always this was a great book. Leah does a great job expressing her characters and moving the story along. I always check Leah's page when I'm looking for new books. Always a great read.

Wonderful story of forgiveness! Thank you!

When Zach appears on Melanie's life he doesn't even believe he deserves forgiveness. Through the grace of God they embark on a sweet journey to the happily ever after they both long for!!!! highly recommend this sweet book about a second chance at first love.

A Summer Homecoming by Leah Atwood is a beautifully written book. I really enjoyed reading this touching love story. Melanie had her heart broken 5 years ago when her fiancé left town, without saying goodbye. Now it is 5 years later & Zach is back home. Can Melanie forgive Zach & trust in their faith, to have a future together? I HIGHLY RECOMMEND FOR EVERYONE TO READ!!!

This is a beautiful romance about second chances. The following excerpt shows the overall theme of this book. "Forgiveness, grace and humility were powerful tools in rebuilding broken relationships, and by God's grace they could heal the gap between them and restore a lost love." I recommend this book for anyone that loves a good Christian romance.

A Summer Homecoming by Leah Atwood is a Christian, romance, an "under 100 page" novella that is well written, with a clean romance and a "G" rating! The characters are lovable, realistic and developed.

This sweet summer novella was heartwarming and romantic. It's the perfect read for a hot summer night. Forgiveness is my favorite theme and this novella shows the beauty and grace of true forgiveness. A great read.

This isn't one of Ms Atwood's better efforts. Very little conflict, everything just turns out perfectly. You know, just like life. I don't think real people talk like that either. Too formal and stilted.
