Customer Reviews

Easy to play and gives me the opportunity to improvise with both hands. (Only thing is that I cannot remember what I played the last time) It's the melody and the chords that are important for me. Otherwise playing pieces as they are is pretty simple, at least as I see it. Unfortunately I do not recognise most of the pieces. Not the book's fault but nevertheless. I should have read the contents more closely.

Now if I only could sing like Joan Baez

Just like described

I would say this is at least intermediate skill level. This is not for the early piano student...good songs , though
