Extreme Prejudice: The Terrifying Story Of The Patriot Act And The Cover Ups Of 9/11 And Iraq

Synopsis

NEW SECOND EDITION. What if the government decided to invent a great lie to justify a disastrous war? What would happen to the people who know the truth? EXTREME PREJUDICE delivers an explosive, high tension expose of the real facts surrounding the CIA's advance warning of 9/11 and an insider's look at Iraqi Pre-War Intelligence, told by one of the very few U.S. Assets covering Iraq before the War. It reveals the depths of deception by leaders in Washington and London to promote a successful image of their terrorism policy, and the shocking brutality to suppress the truth of their failures from Americans and the world community.

Former Congressional staffer Susan Lindauer covered Iraq and Libya at the United Nations, as a U.S. Intelligence Asset and back door channel on anti-terrorism from 1993 to 2003. Most notoriously, in the summer of 2001, her team warned about a major terrorist attack involving airplane hijackings and a strike on the World Trade Center. Lindauer also campaigned heavily against the War in Iraq, and developed a comprehensive peace framework through her back-channel in the run up to War. This is the story of what happened when Lindauer tried to disclose the true facts of Iraqi Pre-War Intelligence and the 9/11 warning to Congress and the American people. It details the nightmare of her arrest on the Patriot Act and her imprisonment without a trial at the notorious prison inside Carswell Air Force Base in Texas. EXTREME PREJUDICE is a true life spy thriller.

Oh my, had to read this 3 times just to confirm the horrors of the patriot act. Nightmares are made of this stuff. Susan I am so proud that you never looked back, you fought back, you played the game to survive. I would proudly call you friend in my lifetime. I'm so sorry this nightmare was used against you and robbed you those final few months of your greatest and dearest supporter's final time here., he became your angel to protect you.I say, if you are an American, you must read this book which will open your eyes, send you in search of 9/11 truth so many deny. I learned things I have never known and how fast our government can make any American disappear without a trace. To go as far as taking your mind away for the rest of your life, oh my how has our government become this beast?I now understand Mr Saddam words before the judge who had him killed.Well worth knowing, a great read and so much information to open your eyes enough to scare the crap out of you. My hats off to Susan first for surviving, second for spending years working for a safer world every way possible. The unsung hero comes to mind, a person committed to peace who risks it all to save others so far away. I thank you for all your hard work, helping others that would never know what you did.Had no clue how much truth I didn't know. Yet with truth comes responsibility and a heavy heart. Oh my.....

This is a must read for all Americans! Republicans and Democrats (and Independents) alike should have this book in their personal libraries. All public libraries, as well as all school libraries, should have this book on their shelves. I'm sure the "Powers that be" throughout this great land will try their very best to denounce and discredit Susan Lindauer for what she was wrongly accused, in order to stop anyone from reading or believing her story. Her truth telling story goes hand in hand with many other professional and highly educated people who are trying to educate the public with their findings and expertize on the developments of September 11, 2001. It was and is an eye opener. Susan has definitely opened my eyes, heart and mind to the injustices within our own government, not to mention the countless lies that come forth through the various avenues at our government's disposal. A government of, for and by the people was a great idea at the time of the founding fathers of this great land. Too bad it's been lost to corrupt, self-serving, power hungry, Politicians!

Susan's story is fraught with amazing accounts of close calls, abuse of power, favors exchanged, loose friendships compromised and shows the Bush II administration's willingness to make Lindauer a sacrifice on the alter of their fictionalized "War On Terror."It is a rough, graphic read, to be quite honest. Lindauer was locked away in a nightmarish federal prison to silence her at a time when the Bush II administration was anxious to silence any and all non-believers in his oil-grabbing machinations. What this woman endured and the efforts of a few who narrowly saved her from chemical lobotomizing (by order of a prison infirmary quack), if not life-long imprisonment, makes for quite an awe-inspiring tale. The most unfortunate aspect of the book, is that it's true... and every politician played a part either by their complicity or impotence when the pervertedly-titled "Patriot Act" should have been put on a roll and left in an out house.

OMG, what you do not know about how our nation is run will stun you out of your chair. If you want change that ensures our nation gets back on course, read this book before you ever head to another voting booth. Miss Lindeaur has a clear, brilliant and witty writing style that takes you through inner workings of the very players pre, during and post 9/11. Fasten your seat belt, because the truth is not pleasant, and our leaders are not what they say they are - it is far darker than I ever imagined. Any one of us could be arrested for nothing more than hearsay indefinitely, with no lawyer, no court, no help, indefinitely, and unconstitutionally, because our leadership in D.C. no longer follows the US Constitution. We as a nation are in uncharted, lawless territory with a runaway Judicial system in flames. All of our future, and that of our children and grandchildren, is at stake. Read this book, watch her interviews. After all it's only the future of the United States, and the rest of the world, at stake.

While she takes aim at top republicans such as John McCain whom stepped right up to abuse the constitution under the Patriot Act to protect themselves from exposure, I think this book describes the efforts of a government gone mad with unchecked power at all levels. Her incarceration and "psychiatric" evaluation in a Soviet Style Gulag approach to protect top politicians is frightening. This sort of thing is not supposed to happen in this country. Ms. Lindhauer wants to blame "Neocon Republicans" for this but I think it shows just how dangerous this country has become by our not heeding President Eisenhower's warning about the military-industrial complex which is really military-industrial-congress-senate-government complex. This is a good read, good lesson. Makes me wonder who wrote the Patriot Act and when. Just how did "Congress" manage to put this put so quickly. Of course no one in congress ever read the damn thing. They are just elected flag waving nincompoops.
