Beautiful arrangements that are not too hard for a late intermediate/early advanced pianist. Also, these are not too hard to memorize.

Although these arrangements are a bit simple for the late intermediate play, they are interesting and easily embellished, improvised for those more skilled. They are well-suited to our contemporary style worship service.

Lovely arrangements. Probably not advanced for some, but perfect for the average pianist.

I was hoping to like this book since I love all of the songs in it. But these songs are just too simple for offertory. Maybe for preludes or those who want to play some calming music during the prayers.

I have several of Victor Lebenske's earlier books, and have used them extensively. These arrangements are not difficult, but gracefully and thoughtfully done, and can be used in many settings...weddings, funerals, offertories, etc.
