Customer Reviews

The translation and illustrations are good but the actual story is terrible, it's a very abbreviated version of the ugly duckling story I remember and the moral is missing/wrong. Would not recommend this version or this book to other parents looking for bilingual English/Spanish books.

The translation is fine. I'm thinking maybe the message isn't so great. If you're different go away.

This version had an odd ending, the moral of the story seems to be to be that you don't fit in with those that don't look like you and do with those that do... different from the story I remember

The story is significantly shorter than other versions. I was disappointed. It's a cliff notes for this classic story.

I bought for my nephew, and was a very good idea. He is charmed.

Great translations and easy to read. I got these for my 5 year old to help him practice his English and Spanish reading. The stories are easy and fun and the pictures are great.

Great book, my daughter that is bilingual loves it. Also I love the fact my husband that speaks English can read it to her also
