MARY POPE OSBORNE is the author of the New York Times number one bestselling Magic Tree House series as well as co-author of The Magic Tree House Fact Tracker series, along with her husband, Will, and her sister Natalie Pope Boyce. SAL MURDOCCA has illustrated over 200 children's trade and textbooks. He currently teaches children's illustration at Parson's School of Design in NYC.

We started these when my grand child was quite young and now she's reading them on her own. She and I both love them. As a history teacher, I appreciate this first foray into our country and world's past. She's thrilled that some of these books are in her first grade classroom and that other children know about them, too. I agree with many other reviewers that these books have become so much better as the series continues. I'm glad we started at the beginning, but the latter stories are far superior to the first groups.

My son loves the Magic Tree House series and can't get enough of them! He is 8 years old and buzzes through one of them in about 50 minutes, this is hard to keep up with, but worth it! I am having a hard time finding the series books for 29 and up in box sets, but I will keep looking! In the interim, he is reading Treasure Hunters by James Patterson...he loves these too and they are much larger books 480 pages vs 70!!!

My daughter reads these multiple times! Nice price and a great gift for a kid (mine is 8) who wants to go on an adventure! She has almost every book from this series and will read them constantly! She even re reads the books she loves them so much! Which is great because I liked them as a kid and now she can read what I once read! (only she reads them much faster than I did at her age). They are a great price on here as well!

for my son - this is a great mini set of jack and annie books!

My Grandson love these books!!! quick and easy..love !!

These are the first of the MTH books that my son wasn't interested in. I think the content (war) was something he just didn't want to deal with at bedtime. He's six, so we'll try reading them together at other times, and see how that goes. I am sure for kids who are interested in history already, or are a bit older, these would be fine.

I purchased these as part of a care package for my 7 year old nephew. He was so excited. He read the first one the day he opened the box. This series is one of his favorites. This length is great for this age group as it is not so long that it doesn't scare them off. Will be sending more.

This is a good book which can attract my kid to sit down and read for over one hour.
