Amy Newmark is Publisher and Editor-in-Chief at Chicken Soup for the Soul.

Really fun and full of emotional moments. A really quick read too.

Love reading about mischievous cats

Always loved these books, this does not disappoint.

I was never a "cat" person until my wife and I discovered "Kittery". He was the first cat that showed me just how deep a cat and child bond can be. His story inspired me to become a contributing author for this book, tell tell that story. Reading all of the other stories in this book makes me realize just how important the presence of cats are in the lives of humans. I highly recommend reading this book -- either to reaffirm your own faith in the importance of cats, or to convince friends or family why they need a cat or two in their own lives as well.

As a fur-baby rescue mom, the Chicken Soup editions about our beloved pets always especially touch my heart. This newest book is no exception. Full of heartwarming tales and tails, this volume confirms, once again, how amazingly quirky our feline friends can be and how we would be lost without them.

All of the 101 heart-warming stories in this book share so many wonderful things about the cats we love and the heroic, humorous and special things they do which endears them to us. I am honored to be a contributing author to this very special book, which will help many shelter cats who deserve a forever home.

Isn't it amazing that a different species can be such an important member of our lives? As a contributing author, I am thrilled to be included (THE PAIR) and thoroughly loved all the stories. Laugh, cry and learn from another awesome Chicken Soup for the Soul book.
